Dear Guests of the 70th Queen of the Chesapeake Pageant,

We hope you enjoy the 2017 Queen's Kedge. This year's Queen's Kedge marks the beginning of a new era in which the Queen of the Chesapeake Pageant stands on its own as a weekend long event.

In this booklet you will find information about the Pageant, including this year's Queen, the club Princesses, and the Pageant Judges. You will also find the 2017 schedule of events and a brief summary of the pageant's history.

The advertisements herein are an integral part of continuing our pageant tradition. Please be sure to support the businesses who have generously supported us.

And we look forward to seeing you next year at the 71st Queen of the Chesapeake Pageant!

Sincerely,
The Queen of the Chesapeake Committee

THE QUEEN OF THE CHESAPEAKE
PAGEANT IS A TRADEMARK OF MARYLAND YACHT CLUB

History

Racing Events, some with sailing yachts — some with hydroplanes, Regattas, a fantastic new club home — was not enough for Maryland Yacht Club Officers and members. They combined Flag-Raising ceremonies and the crowning of the “Queen of the Chesapeake” on the first Sunday in June 1947. Thus our Royal Beginning. Our first Queen was Mrs. Mae Sgerman of Towson.

In 1948 Flag-Raising ceremonies, crowning of the “Queen of the Chesapeake,” introduction of a new speedboat class and three other events for powerboats highlighted the 40th anniversary opening of Maryland Yacht Club. This event, witnessed by over 5,000 spectators, was the first of its type to be televised on the Chesapeake Bay. Miss Rachel Holmes, representing the Bush River Yacht Club won the coveted crown as she competed against six other young ladies then dubbed “Princesses.”

For many years this truly became a competition between Yacht Clubs to the ‘girl next door’ who can think on her feet and become a spectacular representative of each club. The pride that each club shows in their “Princess” is very special and feels the happiness and pride — not only of each girl and her family, but of each of the officers of her club.

Over the years, the number of Pageant contestants has greatly varied — starting with 6 clubs participating and peaking in 1997 with 20 or more entrants. Recently the number of Princesses competing ranges 3 to 8. In the early years — there were no microphones — and the audience made up of members of visiting clubs and families pressed the fence behind the judges table to hear the questions posed to the girls.

The Pageant has evolved to highlight the significant changes in roles of young women over the last 70 years, reflected in the Scoring Breakdown which equally weighs Achievements, Interview skills, and Poise/Presentation. Today’s Queen of the Chesapeake and First Runner Up will receive scholarships toward her continuing education. We still hold strong to the tradition of wearing the beautiful white gown and speaking before judges, members of the yachting community as well as friends and family members.

In 2017, the 70th Queen of the Chesapeake Pageant has grown from the Sunday segment of Maryland Yacht Club’s Opening Weekend to its own premiere, weekend long event focused on the Princesses and their achievements. The Weekend includes a themed boat decorating contest, scholarship fundraising activities, live music, food, and plenty of time to gather with friends as well as the traditional pageant ceremony. It is now takes place after all the yacht clubs have had their openings, which allows the Princesses to focus on their studies during finals and to attend as many openings as possible. All of these activities have been made possible by the yacht clubs coming together and combining their efforts to making this a memorable event for these young women; an event reflecting the true meaning of community that comes with being part of a yacht club on the Chesapeake Bay!

Judges

ACHIEVEMENTS, INTERVIEWS

Joe Hellner has been plying waters of the Chesapeake Bay, sailing and power boating, since 1985. “The type of boat doesn’t matter; if it floats, I like it.” A decorated retired Naval officer, he has also served on the Boards of several Yacht Clubs around the Bay.

Joe has been an Alternate Judge and Tabulator for the Queen of the Chesapeake Pageant.

Joe loves to bicycle and sing, and has been spotted from time to time singing the National Anthem at yacht club affairs, either alone or in harmony with other singers.

ESSAY, INTERVIEWS

Renae Hunter was the Baltimore Yacht Club Princess 2007-2008, Queen of the Chesapeake 1st runner-up in 2007, and Queen of the Chesapeake in 2008. In 2013, she was State Finalist in the Miss Maryland USA pageant. Renae was a judge for the 2015 Bush River Yacht Club Princess Pageant.

A Summa Cum Laude graduate of Stevenson University, Renae is the Art Director at Plank Industries.

Renae grew up in the boating world and feels most at home on the water. She enjoys baking pies, painting and drawing, and reading.

Judges

Angela Lindenmuth has a BS in Nutrition from Cornell and a Doctor of Chiropractic from Palmer College of Chiropractic where she was the Valedictorian in 2003. She owns and has operated White Rose Family Chiropractic since 2010.

Angela volunteers at her sons' schools, and is active in the Chamber of Commerce, Young Women's Club of York, Welcome Wagon, and Young Professionals group for York Traditions Bank.

Angela grew up in a boating family, vacationing, waterskiing, and tubing. She enjoys running, reading, and spending quality time with her family.

ESSAY, OPENINGS AND POISE/PRESENTATION

Marietta Ries is an award-winning Interior Designer, whose designs have been featured in Traditional Home Magazine, The Baltimore Sun/Chesapeake Home + Living 2015, and was American Craft Council, American Craft Show 2013: Featured Designer.

Marietta is a Senior Interior Designer at Alexander Blank Fabrics and Design, Inc., and a member of several professional associations, and the Chair of Bedazzled in Baltimore, and Design Chair of The Park School Auction, also in Baltimore.

Marietta enjoys tennis, antiques, music and hiking.

Judges

Family: husband Gene Schenck, daughter Hunter Schenck (Past Princess of Bodkin Yacht Club), son Horace Schenck, III.

ESSAY, INTERVIEW,
OPENINGS

Maegan Totten won both the Queen of the Chesapeake and Miss NJ Star Pageants in 2007, and is the first Queen to represent Great Oak Yacht Club.

She is working on her BSN at Neumann University in Aston, PA, and working as Patient Coordinator; she was the Phi Theta Kappa National Honor Society Commencement speaker at Camden Community College.

Maegan has been boating since childhood, and also enjoys fishing, running, and dancing.

Tabulators

Jerry Selig, P/C Red Eye YC and Entertainment officer of Chesapeake Commodores Club

Gene Schenck, P/C Susquehanna YC, Bodkin YC, Veterans YC Association and curreant Vice Commodore of the Chesapeake Bay Yacht Club Association

Shelly Speicher-Allocco, P/C Galloway YC and curreant Membership chair of the Chesapeake Commodores Club

Scoring Breakdown & Criteria

Achievement – 25%

The Contestant's achievement will count for 25% of her final score. Her achievement score will be based on the information she provides in the achievement section of her Queen of the Chesapeake Pageant application. Achievements can include any extracurricular activities, leadership experience, academic honors, and awards received. Categories include school honors, sports activities, school organizations, and community activities.

Essay – 15%

The Contestant's essay will count for 15% of her final score. Her essay should be 200-225 words on the specific topic which is included in her application. It should be submitted with her completed pageant application. Content will be the primary scoring criteria for this category. Willingness to follow guidelines and ability to use proper grammar will also be considered.

Interview – 25%

The Contestant's interview will count for 25% of her final score. She will be expected to wear professional attire. The actual interview will consist of the Contestant talking to a panel of three judges for 10 minutes. They will ask questions about the Contestant such as her interests, her aspirations, and her opinion on general subjects. Their goal is to learn more about the Contestant's personality as well as her ability to be engaging during a conversation. They will not ask her any trick questions or ask her questions with right or wrong answers.

Openings — 10%

The Contestant's total number of yacht club openings that she has attended this season will count for 10% of her final score. Her attendance at openings reflects her participation and commitment to the yacht club community. She will announce this number during her introduction on Pageant Day. The judges will calculate her openings score using the following scale:

20+	Openings Attended	=	10 Points
18-19	Openings Attended	=	9 Points
16-17	Openings Attended	=	8 Points
14-15	Openings Attended	=	7 Points
12-14	Openings Attended	=	6 Points
10-11	Openings Attended	=	5 Points
8-9	Openings Attended	=	4 Points
6-7	Openings Attended	=	3 Points
4-5	Openings Attended	=	2 Points
2-3	Openings Attended	=	1 Points

Poise/Presentation — 25%

The Contestant's poise/presentation will count for 25% of her final score. The Contestant's poise/presentation score will be based on the judges' overall impression while she is escorted, seated on stage, and speaking publicly during the Sunday portion of the Pageant. They will be looking for her ability to speak effectively and intelligently during her introduction, speech, and while answering questions. Her score will also be influenced by her ability to command both the judges' and the audience's attention by her poise and confidence.

Queen Kylee

Here's to my last greetings to the yacht club community!

I want to finish up with telling everyone of how crazy and wonderful my year has been. Everyone knows me in my role as the Queen of the Chesapeake, but very few have known of my activities outside of being Queen throughout the year. I am involved in my school's interact club, volleyball team, and I have also been voted class President for the past two years. I am also extremely excited about my recent acceptance into my school's National Honors Society and shortly after our induction, I was elected NHS Vice-President. After doing all of this, I was still able to maintain a 4.25 GPA while being enrolled in all Honors and AP classes during the school year.

All of my extracurricular activities are extremely important to me and I have always enjoyed participating in each of them. However, representing the yacht club community as the Queen of the Chesapeake is most certainly at the top of that list. This past year as Queen has been a year of growth for me. I have gotten to experience something that very few girls ever will and I am forever grateful for this opportunity. I have done things and met people who will forever impact my life. I have grown not just in my position as Queen of the Chesapeake, but as a young woman, whether it be my people skills, my public speaking, or just who I am as a person, I have grown.

I would like to take the time now to thank everyone in the yacht club community for the endless support throughout my reign. I could not have done it without each and every one of you. I look forward to seeing everyone at future events and throughout this wonderful journey of life.

I will finish out my reign with a quote, something I want everyone to remember me by, "She believed she could, so she did."

With lots of love,
Queen Kylee Mills

Princess Kat

Hi, I'm Princess Kat DeSantis, and I am representing Baltimore Yacht Club for the 2017 year!

I love being a part of my boating community, because I get to connect with boaters all along the Chesapeake.

I have also enjoyed raising money for my charity this year, which is the Powerpacks Project of Lancaster.

Along with volunteering, I also enjoy being apart of my Jewish youth group, running cross country, and making new friends!

I wish everyone a happy and peaceful year.

Princess Mia

Serving as Bodkin Yacht Club's Princess is both an honor and a dream of mine since my family became members in 2005. Growing up at BYC, I have always enjoyed visiting other clubs while cruising the Chesapeake Bay.

I am currently a high school freshman at Notre Dame Prep, a Catholic school for girls, where I am a member of the Women in Medicine club. I run on the JV cross country and track and field teams.

To align with my love of the water, the charity I am supporting is the Chesapeake Bay Foundation (CBF). I want to help raise awareness about things that can be done both big and small to help preserve the Bay, so we can all create lasting memories for years to come.

During my reign I have enjoyed attending balls with all of the other princesses. I look forward to representing BYC at club openings and everything else that lies ahead this boating season.

Princess Delaney

Hello! I'm princess Delaney from Bush River Yacht Club. This is my second year being part of the Chesapeake Royalty and it has been nothing short of amazing. The people I've met and memories I've made have truly made a lasting impact on my life.

I currently attend North Harford High School and I am going into my senior year.

When I'm not representing my favorite yacht club on the Bay I am cheerleading, acting, and hanging out with my loved ones.

My charity this year is Chesapeake Region Accessible Boating which offers people with mental and physical disabilities the chance to enjoy what the beautiful bay has to offer all of us.

Thank you all for your ongoing love and support these past two years!

Princess Emma

Hello! I am Princess Emma Strauss of Maryland Yacht Club. This is my second year being princess for this amazing club.

At school, I am currently in a few clubs: Future Business Leaders of America, Interact, and GSA. In band, I play the bass clarinet and Bb (B flat) clarinet.

I love being princess for my club because it allows for to meet and get to know the members. I also love to participate in the children's events because I get to see all of their expressions of excitement and happiness.

Finally, I love to represent my club at sister club's Commodore's balls, and openings. I am also able to enjoy meeting and chatting with new and old friends around the bay. To keep up with my new adventures, you can follow my Facebook page: Princess Emma Strauss, Maryland Yacht Club.

I hope to see you all around the bay!!

Princess Stephanie

My name is Stephanie Glinsky and I am Middle River Yacht Clubs 2017 princess. I go to North Harford high school. I am extremely grateful to have the opportunity of being princess!

Music plays a big role as something I enjoy doing for fun. I'm a member of Bel Canto at my school, which is an advanced women's choir. In my free time, I enjoy doing volunteering. I do vacation bible school as well as many other volunteer duties. However, my favorite place to help with is the homeless shelter near riverside where church members and I go and prepare meals for them. I believe that giving back to the community can only help.

This upcoming year as princess, I plan to represent our club as a friendly active club and while representing MRYC I plan to not only meet and get to know other yacht clubs but I plan on leaving a wonderful impression of MRYC. I hope to become more enriched in the nautical field. I am looking forward to the continuing support from all around the bay.

I would like to thank all the clubs on the bay for giving me so many amazing memories, and for giving me the opportunity to be princess.

Princess Meghan

As the new princess at North East River Yacht Club, and the first princess in over 5 years, I look forward to becoming an active presence in the Chesapeake Bay yacht club community.

Being a sailing instructor at North East's very own junior sailing program I get my fair share of the bay! I thoroughly appreciate nature as I participate in outdoor sports as an avid rower and horseback rider.

Meeting new people is something I love to do whether through volunteering, the North East River Yacht Club, or extracurricular activities.

I look forward to the opportunity to become acquainted with all of you who share my love of boating. I am excited to make memories with my fellow princesses and enjoy the Chesapeake Bay while representing our clubs!

Princess Gabby

Hello, my name is Gabriella Kastrunes, Princess of Riverside Yacht club. I am a junior at Notre Dame Preparatory School, where I am a member of the Women in Medicine Club, Environmental Club, Peace Club, and six National Honor Societies. On the weekends and during the summer, I volunteer with Club Umoja, a camp for children from public housing in Baltimore. I am the student leader for this program, so I organize events and recruit volunteers.

My charity is a non-profit, which I am developing, Sea the Future. The mission statement of this organization is to educate Maryland youth about the bay, empowering them to make a difference. I will be traveling around Maryland to give presentations about the Chesapeake Bay and ways to keep it healthy. I am so excited that my charity combines my love for children and the environment. I look forward to seeing everyone around the bay!

Thank You Princess Kat!

Save Back River

*Protecting the Future of Back River
& The Chesapeake Bay*

- Boaters are noticing that the shorelines and water quality in Back River are greatly improving due to the efforts of the Back River Restoration Committee, Inc. (BRRC) and the upgrades to the Back River River Wastewater Treatment Plant. Both institutions have been working diligently to protect the future of Back River and the Chesapeake Bay.
- In 2016, BRRC and its volunteers prevented over 1,000 tires and an additional 801,000 pounds of trash and debris from flowing into the Chesapeake bay. To help with storm water runoff, 125 trees were planted and over 200 storm drains were marked. Marking storm drains make people aware that runoff flows directly into our waterways. This is just one way BRRC educates the public and raises awareness. Trash does not fall from the sky, it starts in our backyards.
- BRRC, a non-profit grass roots organization was extremely proud of their six environmental students working as summer interns in 2016. These students from CCBC, Towson and West Virginia Universities came in with only classroom knowledge and were able to apply it in the field to gain real life experience such as operating a boat, learning tides, plants, wildlife and more. They worked tirelessly on water and land, pulling in over 170,000 pounds of trash. BRRC will be continuing this program in 2017.
- Through the generosity of supporters, BRRC was able to acquire much needed equipment such as a push boat and 2 barges to expand their clean up capabilities. Fundraising efforts this year will focus on an excavator to pull large debris and sunken, abandoned boats from the river. BRRC worked with Delegate Long to assure that HB1253, the Abandoned Boat Act, passed through legislation and these hazards can be removed from our waterways.

In addition to the BRRC cleanups, the Back River WWTP has invested over $500 million on facility improvements to reduce nutrients released in the effluent. This project is part of Maryland's Chesapeake Bay Restoration Program that aims to reduce nitrogen. Levels are expected to be cut by 90%.

Back River is the gateway to the Chesapeake and a great place to spend the day boating, fishing or crabbing. For more information about BRRC, volunteering, events or donations, visit savebackriver.org
